In the 21st century the style trends of the fashion industry changed themselves more than their 19th century counterparts. Not only the wardrobe changed, but also the way of thinking, the attitude of appreciation, and the way of living. The fashion industry has become a global industry, and the fashion designers and designers are not only looking for the latest trends, but also for the latest technology and materials. The fashion industry is not only a business, but also a culture. It is a reflection of the society and the time. It is a reflection of the personality and the beliefs. And the fashion industry will always be a part of the world's history and culture.
