

2001

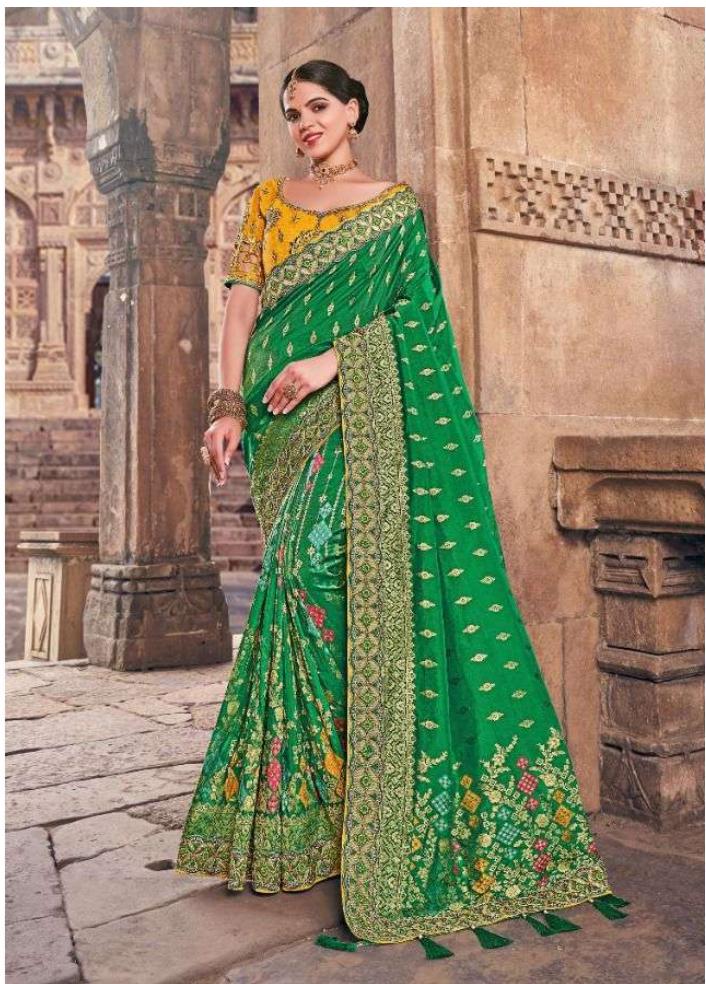

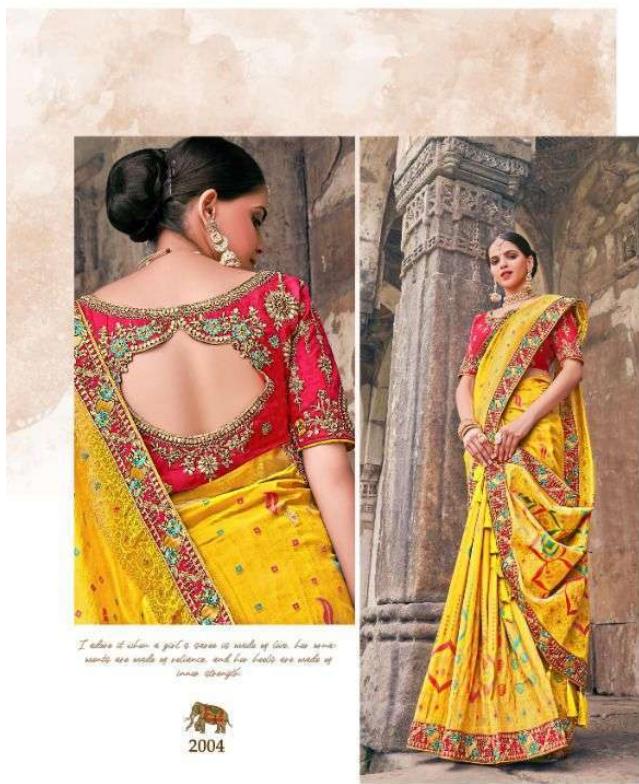

This is a pure silk. You walk into a room wearing a saree and you know what the room was talking about. It's a "so-an-purple" thing.

This is a wonderful garment that definitely flatters the curves of a woman

I adore it when a girl is green or made of green. Her veins are veins of resilience, and her body is made of green strength.

You can't be too traditional, but I can see you stand up to your best.
