Though designated as Indian traditions, Brand of the year - REWAA, this reward really belongs to every craftsmanship who - is dedicating a lifetime to their craft, and creating beautiful, exquisite sarees - both preserve and promote our rich, artisanal tradition.

More important to me than anything else is the notational economic and social empowerment, that is why they strive to leverage the power and privilege that their position grants them and use it to create a more sustainable, robust ecosystem for craftpeople. An ecosystem where karigan, with their unique skillsets, not only survive, but are also afforded the opportunity of upward mobility and economic stability.

We thank you for your patronage, as it permits us to continue aligning our actions with our core value by supporting these crafts, craftpeople, and traditions in a sustainable way.
