As your dress flutters, so does the rest of the world. Their senses flutter, they grow nervous and agitated; as they await a smile, a sign, an insignia of approval from your good self. Fly into their hearts oh graceful damsel, floating on the wings of your allure.

RAAZI

They hail from a world where all is heavenly. They belong to an age which was truly golden. Whatever the world had lost is contained in their bosoms and in their smile, which shines with the purest gold. They were carved from desire, and so too their dresses...which are a source of great envy to all those who don't possess them.

Some say they are not patterns. They're messages from a time when the world was younger and more beautiful. They've been carved into the exquisite garments of these classy maidens, for only they can bring about this age again with their grace and style.
